New Collections

Fenabel presented a new chapter in its design journey at Salone del Mobile 2026, unveiling a series of collections that reinforce the brand's commitment to craftsmanship, innovation, and contemporary hospitality design.

At the center of the presentation was Ondina, developed in collaboration with CarlesiTonelli. Inspired by maritime and organic forms, the collection translates the fluidity of nature into expressive seating defined by visual lightness, refined detailing, and durability for contract environments.

Berry is a modern and elegant chair with a unique wooden detail on the back.

Ondina is one of the major launches of this year's fair — bringing soft curves, comfort, and a refined presence to contemporary hospitality spaces.

Alongside Ondina, Fenabel introduced Berry, a lounge chair shaped by organic lines and warm wood detailing, and Vitta, a Scandinavian-inspired seating solution combining simplicity, comfort, and timeless appeal.

Vitta is a versatile and accessible seating solution, designed to bring comfort and timeless simplicity to restaurant spaces.

New Models Added

The brand also expanded one of its most recognized collections with the launch of the new Baobab Lounge, designed to bring a more relaxed and immersive approach to hospitality interiors.

Baobab Lounge expands the successful Baobab family, created for more relaxed and inviting hospitality spaces.

Further enriching its seating portfolio, Fenabel unveiled new additions to the Coffee and Roma collections, introducing refreshed interpretations that enhance the versatility and character of these established designs.

Roma introduces a more versatile version of the collection, offering the same elegant character in a lighter and more accessible approach.

This Coffee Chair version now features a more open back design, offering a lighter and more versatile interpretation of the original collection.

Complementing the seating launches, Fenabel presented the new Connor and Eter tables, extending the brand's offering through versatile and contemporary support pieces.

Together, these launches reflect Fenabel's continued evolution — combining Portuguese craftsmanship with international design collaborations to create solutions tailored to today's interior and hospitality spaces.

Connor and Eter are versatile solutions designed to fit naturally into a wide range of hospitality spaces.
